

2024 AIC CONFERENCE CALL FOR PRESENTATIONS SUBMISSION FORM

EXCELLENCE IN PROFESSIONALISM: RAISING THE BAR
L'EXCELLENCE GRÂCE AU PROFESSIONNALISME : VISER PLUS HAUT

The Appraisal Institute of Canada is seeking submissions for presentations at the 2024 AIC National Conference. Each session is scheduled to last 1.5 hours, comprising of the presentation and a 15-30 minute discussion and question period with delegates. The AIC is requesting relevant and engaging presentations that will be relevant to our Canadian members within one or more of the following audiences:

- Residential
- Non-Residential
- Fee: A "Fee Member" provides professional services to any party external to the Member's employer.
- Non-Fee: A "Non-Fee Member" provides services exclusively for the internal use of the Member's employer and are kept "in-house" by the Member's employer. Government and crown corporation employees may also register as Non-Fee.

Presenters will receive one night's accommodation and a $400 honorarium for each session they deliver. This honorarium is meant to offset travel expenses and/or registration fees and will be paid 30 days after the conference.
