

THE KEITH GOODWIN AWARD

The BC Association of the AIC is pleased to announce that it will present this award for outstanding achievement at each year's AGM. The award is intended to recognize a designated member for outstanding service, leadership, achievement, education, or mentoring. The award is named after AIC past Provincial and National President, Keith Goodwin, who personifies these attributes.

Keith Goodwin commenced his professional career in England in 1973 and moved to Canada in 1980. He joined AIC in 1987 and is now a retired Fellow and Accredited member of the Appraisal Institute of Canada (AACI, P.App., Fel.). Mr. Goodwin served on the National Governing Council and the Executive Committee and was also a member of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors (MRICS), Real Estate Institute of British Columbia (REIBC), B.C. Housing Commissioner, and President of the Skeena Kalum Society. He was also elected as AIC-BC President in 1994-1995 and AIC National President in 2002-2003.

The Provincial Executive will act in the capacity of the nominations committee and written nominations will be sought from the membership and Chapters by the end of May in each calendar year. The Provincial Board will then determine the recipient of the award for the year.

The Goodwin Award is to be presented when warranted to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the appraisal profession or has distinguished himself/herself in assisting the professional aims of the AIC-BC and AIC. Since this is a Provincial award, priority will be given to those individuals whose contributions have been made at the Provincial/Chapter level. Outstanding contribution could include:

- ✚ Consistent involvement, including leadership, in professional association activities.
- ✚ Demonstrated sustained professional excellence.
- ✚ Contributed to knowledge through publication, presentation and research.
- ✚ Demonstrated ongoing commitment to educating members and the public.

Note: Current members of the AIC-BC Board are not eligible for nomination.

Presentation/announcement:

- ✚ The Goodwin Award will be presented at the AIC-BC Annual General Meeting.
- ✚ An article on the recipient will go into the WCA with biography and pictures.

Nominations must include a biography (one page minimum) detailing contributions performed by the member being nominated. Nominations should be addressed to the AIC-BC Provincial office, attention of Christina Bhalla.
