ABOUT AIC

Founded in 1938, the 5,200-member Institute is the premier real estate valuation association in Canada. Designated members provide reasoned valuations, widely respected by the courts, real estate corporations, chartered banks, trust companies, mortgage lending institutions, all levels of government and private individuals. Many users of valuation services will accept appraisal reports completed only by individuals, who have earned use of the AACI, P.App, or CRA designation.

The Mission of the Appraisal Institute of Canada is to promote and support our members in providing high quality property advisory services for the benefit of the public.
